Compliance with Supervision Conditions and Prior Interventions:

Travis Hogg lives with his girlfriend in Lebanon, Tennessee, and is currently employed with Marion and Green Roofing. Mr. Hogg began his three year term of supervised release on October 25, 2013, and is due to terminate supervision on October 24, 2016.

As a result of the positive drug test on January 7, 2014, the probation officer verbally reprimanded Mr. Hogg and re-instructed him to not use any illegal substance. Mr. Hogg was referred for substance abuse treatment at Cumberland Mental Health in Lebanon, Tennessee.

As a result of the positive drug test on January 27, 2014, the probation officer, again, verbally reprimanded Mr. Hogg and re-instructed him to not use any illegal substance. Mr. Hogg's treatment was increased to one session per week. The probation officer encouraged Mr. Hogg to actively participate in his treatment, and discussed the possibility of inpatient substance abuse treatment if Mr. Hogg continued to use marijuana.

U.S. Probation Officer Recommendation:

The probation officer is requesting that no additional action be taken by the Court at this time. It is recommended that Mr. Hogg remain on supervised release, participate in substance abuse treatment, and not incur any future violations. Assistant U.S. Attorney Brent Hannafan has been advised of the offender's noncompliance and is in agreement with this recommendation.
